Two Letters to Mrs. Pinkham.

Mrs. JOHN WILLIAMS, Englishtown, N. J., writes:

" DEAR MRS. PINEHAM:-I cannot begin to tell you how I suffered before taking your remedies. I was so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without falling. I had womb trouble and such a bearing-down feeling; also suffered with my back and limbs, pain in womb, inflammation of the bladder, piles and indigestion. Before I had taken one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great deal better, and after taking two and onehalf bottles and half a box of your Liver Pills I was cured. If more would take your medicine they would not have to suffer so much."

Mrs. JOSEPH PETERSON, 513 East St., Warren, Pa., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I have suffered with womb trouble over fifteen years. I had inflammation, enlargement and displacement of the womb. I had the backache constantly, also headache, and was so dizzy. I had heart trouble, it seemed as though my heart was in my throat at times chok ing me. I could not walk around and I could not lie down, for then my heart, would beat so fast I would feel as though I was smothering. I had to sit up in bed nights in order to breathe. I was so weak I could not do any-

"I have now taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and can say I am perfectly cured. I do not think I could have lived long if Mrs. Pinkham's medicine had not helped me."

This is a fair Picture f one of the swell medium weightsuits for menthat we sell Ten Dollars Can you tell it from a $20.00 made-to-order suit? Picture in your mind the very nicest ready-to-wear suit that you ever bought for $15.00 and we'll guarantee these to equal it. The Materials Black Clay Worsted. Black or blue all-wool Serge Cheviots. Brown or grey all-wool Cassimeres and Fancy The Styles ound cornered 4-but. sacks. Straight out sacks. ble breasted sacks. Italian or serge linings-

sewn throughout with silk— cut stylishly and to fit all sizes

The Emporium and

Golden Rule Bazaar

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

-alim and stout.

'What are you doing now?' asked ing over a drug store with a view to a possible purchase

"Charging the soda we expect to sell

"Do you know all the people that come in here to buy things?" "Of course not. We have hundreds of strangers every day, especially among those who come to patronize the foun-

"That's what I reckoned, and me and you can't make no cicker. I hain't a goin to buy no be iness where they charge all the sod y in advance and then peddle it ou! to every Tom, Dick and Harry what comes along. What I

Why, Certainly.

Customer-I wish I had as good a head of hair as you have. I have tried everything to remedy my baldness, but with no good results. Watchmaker-Have you ever tried rubbing your head with steel? Customer-Certainly not. That seems to me ridiculous.

Watchmaker-Why ridiculous? Isn't it a fact that steel makes the hair spring?-Boston Courier.

join right in with him, would you? Dilby-No, sir, I'd rebuke him. I'd tell him that the truth should not be spoken on all occasions. -Boston Transcript.

In general the eggs of an insect are destined to be hatched long after the parents are dead, so that most insects are born orphans. Probably it is this that makes insects behave so horribly -Boston Globe.

Though many guests be absent it is the cheerful man we miss. - African Proverb.

Which

do you like best-grocerbills or doctor-bills?

Use the wholesome baking powder - Schilling's Best.

Tobagganing In 1765.

It is interesting to note in Sm Travels Through France and Italy that when the novelist was making an excursion in March, 1765, from Nice scross the Maritime Alps to Turin he descended the Piedmontese slope of the Col di Tenda toward Cuneo on a tobog-

"Having reached the top of the moun tain," he tells us in letter 33, "we prepared for descending on the other side by the leze, which is an occasional sledge made of two pieces of wood, carried up by the coulants (local guides) for the purpose. I did not much relish this kind of carriage, especially as the mountain was very steep and covered with such a thick fog that we could hardly see two or three yards before us. Nevertheless our guides were so confident and my companion, who had passsecure that I ventured to place myself my wife, and as my pencil traces the at Culpeper, and Charlie and I were on this machine, one of the conlants standing behind me and the other sitting before me as the conductor, with his feet paddling in the snow, in order to moderate the velocity of its known my wife. We were children to- caught him reading it in a corner of scent. Thus accommodated, we descended the mountain with such rapidi Hills. By some frenkish relationship, the sun was just going down behind ty that in an hour we reached Limon. for which one of our ancestors was re-Here we waited two full hours for the sponsible, Jane Merriam was nominalmules which traveled with the servants ly my aunt, though several years my by the common road."

with another girl.

junior. Her father and mother died before she was 12, and from that day with whom she was connected by distant blood ties. I was away at school at the time of her bereavement and

"Aunt Jane" was a beautiful child,

she had grown into a handsome girl,

when at the expiration of my college home in the Blue Hills to hang up my shingle as a lawyer. It was just a year was getting along famously, when all my calculations were upset, and I en-our little place to belp Lee defeat the haughty answer, with which my story be back in less than six months. By that time we'll have driven the Yan-and kittenish ways. She shed bliter till the end of doom to become my wife.

sweet Lucy's promise was the tal'sman that strengthened me and bade

Several gushing, girlish letters came from her in answer to my passionate avowals of undying love and fealty.

How they sweetened the hardships and dull, aching moments of those inter-

I had been in several battles and a number of the boys from our place were either killed or maimed. Charlle

Ferguson, my collegemate and the son of the district attorney of Marcelline, with whom I had been reading law, es minable days and nights!

"Aunt Jane," I had said, when I told enemy.

begins.

love!"

What do you fellows do for drink- tears and klased her farewell. With-

This is simply tobogganing used as a practical means of transit for travelers on she made her home with our family, in the Alps -Chambers' Journal.

A rebuke emphasized by a kindness is upon returning for vacation found her apt to be remembered. One day an offi- at the old Marcelline homestend, "Aunt cer walked into the office of one of the Jane," the younger children called her, pocket. well known business men of the west. and I soon fell into their way, although to the officer.

"I've come to attach the wages of playmates. one of your men for a debt. " "Who is the man?"

The officer named him, and he was at once summoned to his employer's term at Richmond I returned to my

"How long have you been in debt?"

was the first question asked.

"Been behindhand for 20 years."

before the breaking out of the war. I before the breaking of the war. I was getting along famously when all can't seem to catch up," said the man.

"But you have a good salary."

"I know it, but I can't get out of our little place to help I say defeat the

"You must get out, or you must leave here. How much do you owe?"

The whole was not much less than $1,000, but the employer immediately wrote his check for the amount, and said, as he handed it to the man: "This will pay all your bills. If I her I was going away that night, "I li hear of your running in debt again,

It was what the doctors call "heroic treatment," and it not only astonished the man, but "revolutionized" him. He settled with his creditors, and then, by ing," answered Aunt Jane, with a Better than a genius for making money is the habit of paying as you go.—

Youth's Companion.

will do us all great harm!' Tossing her beautiful head that I might not see

A Pittsburger who at one time served an enlistment on the United States steamship Michigan, a vessel of the great grandmother had come from En-United States navy which is stationed gland to marry Jane's handsome anon the great lakes, tells a story of cestor, from whom she inherited her Charles V. Gridley, captain of the flag-dark beauty. "Aha!" I whistled softly ship Olympia, which led the fighting to myself, "Aunt Jane's sympathies at Manilla.

Young Gridley, shortly after gradua- the family about my discovery, but tion at the Naval academy, was ordered hurried away to take leave of Cousin to the Michigan for duty. A few days Lucy Gordon. I had been in love with the man from the country who was look. after he had reported the commander Lucy before I went away to college. ordered the usual heat drill, and the and I fancied myself more desperately were want through the process of aban- smitten than ever now that doning the ship. When the cutter of to bid her farewell. We were distantwhich Gridley was in command had by related, Lucy and I, and she was gone a mile or two away from the yes- of the same age as Aunt Jane, barely sel, the young officer, who had never 21. Two women were never more before sailed on fresh water, inquired strangely contrasted. Lucy was a lutsharply for the water cask, which he terfly, a doll with golden curls, eyes discovered had not been placed in the like the summer sky, lips like cherries

> ing water when you are called away out much coaxing on my part sha from the ship?" he asked the cockswain promised that she would wait for me with some asperity. "Sure, sir," replied that worthy, So I went away happy after all, for

'we generally dip over the side." Gridley had nothing more to say, but want to buy is a drug store doin a stric'ly cash trade." — Detroit Free the joke has been in circulation ever me hope in the terrible days that folsince.-Pittsburg Dispatch.

The difference between a battleship and an armored cruiser is technical, and experts have stumbled over the matter. A battleship is supposed to have heavier guns and armor and to be better fitted to withstand hard knocks from an opposing force. But this does not always hold good, as may be seen in the case of the Maine as compared with the Brooklyn. The Maine was a battleship, but she was not so large nor so heavily armored as the armored cruiser Brooklyn. Hazen—I like to see a man stick by pute, and that is the fact that the his friends. Now, for instance, if a cruisers are faster than the battleships, man told you I was an ass you wouldn't and it is conceded also that in most instances the battleships are better protected.-New York Tribune.

Penn had a very strong aversion to tobacco. Once he came unexpectedly upon some of the Friends who were enjoying the fragrant weed, but out of respect for their great leader they hid their pipes, which, however, still continued to emit smoke. Perceiving this, the governor said pleasantly, "Well, friends, I am glad to see that you are at last ashamed of your old practice.' "Not entirely so," replied one of the brethren, "but we preferred laying down our pipes to the danger of offending a weaker brother."-London Tit-

A Change of Opinion.

"There's a good deal of human nature in a puppy," remarked the philosopher, calmly watching Fido tearing his best hat to pieces. "Almost as destructive as one of my little nephews."

Mrs. Bonneer-Why, professor, don't you see he's got your hat! The Professor—Thunder, so he has! I thought it was one of the boarders' hats. Take that, you whelp!-Boston Tran-

America's

Createst Medicine is the Medicine for You.

Do not experiment with untried preparations. Be satisfied only with the greatest and best, Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured multitudes of people and is kept on hand butterfly nature was lacking, that dic- The number of attendants at the sevin thousands of homes as the only safe and reliable family medicine. It will defend you from the dangers of the heated season.

We were nearing the days of Gettys.

Hood's Sarsaparilla 405-7 Sausome St., San Francisco, Cal. Hood's Pills cure all liver ills. 25 cents.

YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT YOU'RE SAYING caped without a scratch. Our good London Post describes: luck made us vow to stick together kindly with us than it had. Months passed without a word from home. Then a letter came from Lucy. to go to milk a cow. postmarked New York. It bore the marks of having been opened, censored and resealed, to prevent contraband information, before it was sent to its destination-Lee's camp.

Lucy had been sent to New York by her parents to some of Aunt Jane's reintions to escape the dreariness of the war at home. Aunt Jane was asked to my father and mother and the smaller children in the dear old, desolate Marcelline home. The little sweetheart's letter was as gushing as ever. It was filled with endearing terms, and recounted enthusiastically how delightfully she was being entertained by a select circle of New York friends,

We were nearing the days of Gettysburg, and needed all the encouragement 11: six for $5. that should be given to men who real- outlives an attachment for the wedding ize that they are fighting for a lost presents which were given her,

A PHILIPPINE BEROINE.

TRY ALLEN'S FOOT-RASE

Love Story of the War. inconstruction and in the second HE was a bit haughty to me on cause. Our army had been victorious Sthat particular day, but I didn't at Chancellorsville, and from all over care, for I was desperately in love the South came the clamor for Lee's with another girl.

The "she" of whom I am writing is Early in June our forces were centered paper, she sits by my side, smiling and cooling softly to our youngest grand-child, a lovely haby boy.

I can't recall the day that I have not friend received a letter from home. I gether in our lovely home in the Blue our tent by the light of his pipe, for "From home?' I asked anxiously. "Yes, from Aunt Jane. She sends her love to you and bids you not to grow discouraged." "Any word from Lucy?"

"None." I had never known Charlle to be so reticent about his letters, which he usually handed me for perusal. But this I saw him put away in his breast

In the days that followed I had little 'What do you want here?' he said she was Jennie to me, and we were time to wonder what had made my mate so downhearted and gloomy. Then came that memorable day in July, with dark hair and rich gray eyes, and which none can forget who lived to tell REVERENTLY I OPENED IT.

its tale of horror. Charlie was shot by my side on Seminary Ridge. I saw at a glance that he was badly wounded and picked him up in my arms to earry im back to the lines. kees across our lines, and I'll celebrate the victory by marrying the girl I

There I laid him down, putting him in the care of one of our boys, whose arm was shattered by a bullet, haughty stare. "I fear the Yankees not let his body be buried. I promised watching the raging of the storm in the to return it to his poor old mother.' Toward night, when the battle ceased, her furiously blushing face, she ran He had died while I was gone, and his There was Yankee blood in Aunt body lay in a long trench with hun-Jane, although of a distant strain. Her dreds of others ready to be covered family became alarmed and decided to dug this wholesale grave could catch was directly underneath the porch, on their breath and complete their terrible work. The guard I had put over him assisted in getting the children to this stood by the side of the ditch where he | place of safety, and he was the last one are a trifle divided!" I said nothing to son requested me to tell you that the his hold upon the doorknob the storm letter in his breast pocket should not swept down upon him in all its fury. be taken out by any one but you. He also bade me tell you to read it." Gently I lifted the body in my arms and from his pocket extracted the document he had left me. I thought it perhaps a memorandum of his last wishes, which he wanted me to carry out. The receptacle over his heart carried nothing but a letter. It was from Aunt Jane. Reverently I opened it. I knew that Charlie was fond of her, but I never dreamed that he loved her and had asked her to be his wife. Tenderly but firmly she refused him.

"I love another," she wrote. "You may guess it is my old playfellow, Ben Sutliff, but he will never know. He is madly in love with Lucy-she has forgotten him. Yesterday we received the anouncement of ber marriage with a wealthy Boston merchant. Do not tell Ben this! He needs all his courage. It would be cruel to blast his hopes in these hard, trying times." My eyes filled with tears as I read

Aunt Jane's letter. A sigh for Lucy, yes, fickle Lucy, wrung itself from my heart; but the pain her faithlessness gave me was wiped out by Aunt Jane's divine love.

I placed the letter in the pocket over my heart. There it lay until I returned to Marcelline at the close of the war. Aunt Jane stood by the gate to welcome me. My father had died, but my mother was still there to greet me. That night under the trees of the old homestead, with no other face but the moon for a witness, I told Aunt Jane of my find.

She turned scarlet and then deadly pale, but before she had time to fly from me I caught her in my arms and exacted the promise that made her my wife.-Utica Globe.

A Queenly Milkmaid. The Queen of the Belgians and Priness Clementine, while driving in a pony-cart one day last summer, had a charming rural adventure, which the

They stopped at a farmhouse to buy through it all, or see each other's bod- a glass of milk. Nobody but an old, ies home, should fate deal more un- paralyzed woman was in the house, and she replied that no milk was left in the jugs, and that she was unable "Never mind," said the queen; "if you will allow me, I will go to the pasture. Just tell me where the jugs are." "But, my dear lady, you are from the town, and you will never be able to milk a cow," objected the old woman. She was mistaken, however, for a little later her majesty returned with a war at home. Aunt Jane was asked to half-filled jug. Meantime, Princess join her, but she chose to remain with Clementine had laid on the table three bowls, a loaf and the needful knives and plates. The old farmer's wife was served by the princess, who, it appears, greatly enjoyed the adventure.

The Largest Congregation The largest congregation in America is that of St. Stanislaus Kostka, in Chi-Somehow, the ingenuous ring in the cago, which has 30,000 communicants.

A woman never gets so old that she

Happy Innocence. "I wonder II those Bus-ye use landarum on their baby nights." "No, tusby sings it to sleep." "I did'ut know Bus-y could sing." "Well, the baby len't old nough to be critical."

A powder to be shaken into the shoes. At this season your feet feet awollen, nervous and hot, and get tired easily. If you have smarting feet or tight shoes, try Allen's Foot-Ease. It cools the feet and makes walking easy. Cures awollen and sweating feet, blisters and cailous spots. Relieves corus and bunions of all pain and gives rest and comfort. Ten thousand testimonials of cures. Try it to-day. Bold by all drug-dista and shoe stores for 25c. Sent by mail for 25c in stamps. Trial package FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. powder to be shaken into the shoes.

One War Corn spondent—There is son religious stir I could take de-light in. Another Om—And what is that? "Swinging a censor."

We offer One Hundred Bollars Reward for any case of Catarth that taxnot be cured by Hall's Catarth Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

WIST & TRUAN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Manvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Gatarth Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Frace, 75c. per bat le. Sold by all Druggists. Testimoulais free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

FITS Permanently Cared No fits or nervousness.

Notice Rest day's use of Dr. Eline's Grant
Notice Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottile and treatise. Dr. R. R. KLINK, Ltd., 8B Arch 4L, Philadelphia, Pa.

Two bottles of Piso's Cure for Consump-ion cured me of a bad lung trouble.—Mrs. . Nichols, Princeton, Ind., Mar. 28, 1895. Try Schilling's Best tea and baking powder, RIDING ON A DOOR.

The Steed Which a Cyclone Furnished an Christian Van den Harvner, familiarknown in Celina, O., as Cyclone

ohnny, is perhaps the only man living that enjoys the unique distinction of having ridden a cyclone astride a house door for a distance of over a quarter of a mile. This remarkable feat was performed not as a matter of choice, but perforce of necessity by the above namrd person when the cyclone swept across Celina in May, 1886. Cyclone Johnny's description of the cyclone is graphic and thrilling. He was living at the time eight miles west "Stay with him," I begged, "until I of Celina, and on the night of the cyreturn, and if he should be dead, do rlone he and Mr. Bryan's family were west. The electric display was wonderful, and to him it seemed as though the hastened back to my friend Charile. world was about to come to an end by fire. The flashes were so brilliant that the eyes could not withstand them. The with earth as soon as the men who had go to the cellar for safety. The cellar the west side of the house, and Harvner to leave the house. Just as he stepped upon the porch and before he released He went sailing through the air, over the tops of trees, the uppermost branchbody. The gait he traveled was terrific, and it seemed but a second from the time he started until he found himself safely dropped into a large field uninjured, save for the scratches inflicted upon him as he sailed over the top of the crees. This field was a little over a quarter of a mile from Mr. Bryan's house, and Harvner wandered around in the darkness and driving rain until he met searching party, among whom was Mr. Bryan, who, together with his entire family, were saved by their opportune flight to the cellar.

> "Has my daughter been profiting by your instructions in art?" inquired Mr.

"Yes," answered the teacher. "I was a little discouraged at first. But I can now assure you that she is getting on.' "What progress has she made?"
"She has finally become convinced that she doesn't know mo- about it than the old masters."- W. hington

SYRUP FIGS

ONE ENIORS Both the method and results when

Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50 cent bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any ubstitute unt's water All Elst FAILS. Cough Syrup, Tastes Good. Use n time. Sold by druggists.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, M.Y.

The Only Thing to Do. Bad Digestion, Bad Heart,

She had much pain in her stomach and in vain; the patient became worse, despondent, and feared impending

A Case of Heart Failure.

that in intervals in which her stomach did not annoy her, her heart's action became normal. Reasoning correctly that her digestion was alone at fault

the choking spells became less frequent

The case is of general interest because the disease is a very common one. That others may know the means of cure we give the name of the medicine used-Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. These pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and

WILL & FINCK CO'S.

SPRING EYE GRAIN BAG NEEDLE

Plain or with Cutter. The Best Needle in the Market. Used by all Sack Sewers. For Sale by all general Mdae. Stores or by

Will & Finck Co., 920 Market St., San Francisco, Cat

LOST

The opportunity of saving MONRY, if you do not buy from us. We isositively guarantee to give you a DISCOUNF of 5 to 25 per cent from any Price List, issued by any Facilic Count take or Department Store. We can sell you everything you need, write for full particulars.

GILBERT CLEMENTS SONS.

General Supplies.

restore shattered nerves

She was much frightened but noticed

Doctors were tried

There was a time when the Illinois Central railroad was being constantly sued. This story illustrating the avidity of plaintiffs is related by the Louisville ity of the heart's action. This irr Courier-Journal. Emily A. Storrs, the larity may be mistaken for real, organization. famous Chicago lawyer, was approached famous Chicago lawyer, was approached heart disease. The symptom are by an old man with a note one day. much the same. There is, however, The note had been found among the ef-fects of a deceased relative. What's the nature of the note?" ask- apparent heart disease is curable if od Mr. Storrs.

"I don't know, sir," replied the old fellow.

"Have you any idea who wrote it?"
asked Mr. Storra.

"No. sir," answered the note bearer.

"Well, do you know anything about the note at all?" asked Mr. Storrs.

"Nothing at all, sir," answered the indigestion pressed on the learning at all, sir," answered the by the indigestion pressed on the heart, and caused an irregularity of its action.

"Well," remarked Mr. Storrs thought-fully, "the only thing I can see to do in severe choking spells, which were most the premises is to one the Illinois Cen-

Every government and almost every department has its secret codes of signs, figures or words devised by some clever code composer for use in the transmis sion of messages of supreme importance and with regard to which secrecy is of vital consideration. One which is said to be the cleverest of all those now in use is employed by the United States state department. It is called the "sphinx." The "sphinx" was devised by one of the officials in the state department and is as susceptible to change as the combination lock of a safe. Hundreds of messages have been sent by it, and it defies all attempts to unravel its meaning by those unacquainted with

Her Huge Secret Society.

A well known Washington woman was doing the cathedral cities of Engand last summer. Throughout her tour she wore a tiny American flag pinned to the waist of her traveling dresses. A good many of the English people whom she procured the proper medicine to she met did not understand or pretend treat that trouble and with immediate ed not to understand what the flag stood good results. Her appetite came back,

'You belong to some secret society, 1 and finally ceased. Her weight, which perceive," said an English woman to had been greatly reduced, was restored. and she now weighs more than for years. Her blood soon became pure and nom she was introduced, pointing the diminutive starry banner her cheeks rosy.

"Yes," responded the Washington woman amiably. "There are 70,000,000 of us. "-Washington Post.

"Henry," she said disconsolately, 'you didn't give me a birthday gift.' "By Jove, that's so," said Henry, but you see you always look so young that I can't realize you ever had birth-

Then she was happy, and he smiled the mean, subtle smile of a man who has saved money. - London Tit-Bits.

Wooing in England is, as a rule, the preliminary to a happy union. The latest statistics show that the average annual number of applications for divorce does not exceed 575, which is certainly small, considering that the number of Englishmen and English women who marry each year is 450,600.

In England less than a century ago it was not unusual for a man to sell his

"A Perfect Type of the Highest Order of Walter Baker & Co'.s

Breakfast

Abs lutely Pure, Nutritious.

Costs Less Than ONE CENT a Cup.

Be sure that you get the Genuine Article, made at DORCHESTER, MASS. by WALTER BAKER & CO. Ltd.

8. F. N. U. No. 841. New Series, No. 32

News Ink.

This Paper is printed with Nathan's

A Beautiful Present

In order to further introduce ELASTIC STARCH (Flat Iron Brand), the manufacturers, J. C. Hubinger Bros. Co., of Keokuk, Iowa, have decided to GIVE AWAY a beautiful present with each package of starch sold. These presents are in the form of Beautiful Pastel Pictures They are 13x10 inches in size, and are entitled as follows

Lilacs and Pansies.

Wild American Poppies.

Iris.

Lilacs and